Dear Brother Atwoli,

Solidarity message on the Garissa University College Attack

It is with deep outrage that we heard the news about the bloody attack that hit the University of Garissa in Kenya on 02 April, leading to the killing of 148 people, mostly students and injury of many others. These brutal and senseless acts relate to barbarism of another age.

At this time of deep sorrow and national mourning by the people of Kenya, we would like to offer our deepest condolences to the families of the victims and the people of Kenya as a whole

This attack adds to the already long list of heinous acts of terrorism across Africa and poses further threat to peace and security in our continent.

While addressing our most heartfelt thoughts to COTU and to the bereaved families, we express our support for the resolve of the Kenyan government to intensify its fight against terrorism and urge all African governments to work together to ensure the protection and security of all people in Africa.

Yours fraternally,

Kwasi Adu-Amankwah
General Secretary
