Congratulatory Message to NLC

ITUC-Africa congratulates the Nigeria Labour Congress (NLC) on the successful conclusion of its 11th Quadrennial Delegates Conference and election of its National Administrative Council (NAC) from March 12-13, 2015.

We pay tribute to the NLC affiliate unions and their commitment to internal democracy as well as to the perseverance of Conference delegates in submitting themselves wholly to the transparent but grueling process that was involved in electing the President and other executive members of the NLC.

We fully acknowledge that the newly elected NLC President, Ayuba Wabba and his team, assume office at a critical period in the political life of Nigeria and indeed that of Africa as a whole. At the same time, we are hopeful that the new leadership will live up to the trust invested in them by Nigerian workers and fulfill their mandate in leading workers to secure better conditions of work and life. ITUC-Africa is also hopeful that the NLC under the leadership of Comrade Wabba and his team will assume their rightful leadership role among the workers of West Africa and Africa as a whole.

ITUC-Africa salutes the NLC and its newly elected leadership and extends best wishes in all the endeavours to improve the conditions of Nigerian workers and strengthen the African trade union movement as a whole.
