Dear Colleague,

SOLIDARITY MESSAGE TO THE PEOPLE OF MOZAMBIQUE FOLLOWING CYCLONE IDAI

The African Regional Organization of the International Trade Union Confederation (www.ituc-africa.org) would like to express its solidarity to comrades in OTM, to the entire population of Mozambique and particularly to the victims of the deadly Cyclone “Idai”.

It was with a great emotion and sadness that we learned of this tragedy that would have caused the death of at least a thousand inhabitants in Mozambique. Information reaching us describe a very terrifying extent of the damage. In Beira, the second largest city in Mozambique would be 90% destroyed.

In this sorrowful moment and being very much aware of the impact that these human and material damages will have caused to the economy of Mozambique and more particularly to the situation of the Mozambican workers, we wish to extend our heartfelt condolences and those of all African workers to you and to the people of Mozambique. We wish speedy recovery to the injured.

In solidarity,

Kwasi Adu-Amankwah
General Secretary
